ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Week: Valero's Benecia Oil Refinery

Demotion Celebration.

Kiss Prez Barry good-bye as we look back on a Magic Rotary Year

Wish him bon voyage as we send him off on a one-way "Cruise to Oblivion." Saturday, June 30, at 6pm, at the Jewish Community Center in Walnut Creek. $30 per person; NY Strip or Chicken Marsala. Sign up with Earl Wightman.

Last Week: We visited behind the scenes with private firm Crime Site Cleanup expert Kathleen Olsen. She told us and showed us more than a Mafia hit-man would ever want to know about the amazing field of infectious disease and biohazardous waste cleanup. Kathleen's firm is one of many private companies that handles major toxic and biohazard cleanup problems, at both crime scenes and at locations of tremendous neglect.

Recognitions:

Thanks to Russ Anderson for organizing 16 Rotarians and guests who played in the Fountain For Youth golf tournament at Boundary Oaks on June 1st.

Congratulations to Susan Castillo and to John Gardner, recent graduates of the Leadership Skills training course.

We are thankful that Jack Fisher survived relatively unscathed from a fall out a window of his home onto his roof.

Paul Fisher visited Venezuela with a Rotoplast surgical team, combined with a brief vacation in Colombia.

Jim Campana traveled to Austria.

Prez Barry gave thanks to past District Governors Paul Fisher and Adrian Mendes, and to Past President Mel Bacher for their support and advice (solicited and unsolicited) during the past Rotary year.

Birthdays

Many happy returns of the day to Mel Bacher, Marv Epstein, Milt Smith, Walt Youngman, Lee Schneider, Rick Math- ews, and Sal Flavetta who celebrate birthdays during June.

Rotary International Conference:

June 24-27, 2001 in San Antonio, Texas. See Prez Barry Slavin for info on attending this year's international conference.
