ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thanks, Jack Fischer, Club President 2003-2004

Rotary Year 2003-2004 was another great success for our Club, and our service to our local community and the world. Several new members joined our strong existing base, adding to the fun and fellowship that makes Rotary a unique service organization worldwide. Thanks to Jack for his dedicated leadership that made this another great year!

Club Teams and Directors for 2004-2005 Rotary Year

Pres-elect Gill Bordenave has announced a reorganization and focus of the Club leadership structure for 2004-2005. The monthly teams will be led by recent additions to the Club membership. The Club Directors now will be responsible for the six specific areas of service. Please help the directors and the team captains with these new roles.

The Club Directors for 2004-2005 now will be responsible for the following six areas of service:

Pam Raumer: Director of Internal Club Service

John Milsap: Director of External Club Service

Remsen Barnard: Director of Community Service

Tony Gourkani: Director of International Service

John Young: Director of Vocational Services

Gordon Fischer: Director of Youth Services
