Today’s Meeting
President Gary Stein. It is Foundation Month so Scott Wilson will be going over the Annual Report of the Foundation and Gordon Fischer will be reviewing Rotary International for the club.

A Little Rotary with your Coffee?
Jason Callan
Several years ago Carl Manna started a "Coffee Talk" program where Rotarians from our club were matched up with each other and encouraged to get to know one another on a one-on-one basis. We have now restarted this program. You will be matched up with someone and you have two weeks to find a time to get together - often for a coffee or lunch, before you'll be matched up with the next Rotarian. It is a lot of fun and you get to know many of your fellow Rotarians this way. Please let me know if you'd like to be a part of this program!

Double Speed!
Donations to the Paul Harris Fund now through the end of the year will be points matched by the club! Get to your next Paul Harris level twice as fast; $100 = $200, $500 = $1K and you are in! A Paul Harris donor! Not a Paul Harris level fund donor yet? Now you can be in time for Christmas! Don’t miss this opportunity! But you’ve gotta be generous, the minimum donation is one Benjamin.

Happy Thanksgiving
The Turkey Toss is back!

Lance Mendes
This week there was a tie with two members making a winning toss. Who will win November 15th, our final game of Cornhole? For $5 you get 4 bean bag tosses. Whoever makes the most tosses in the hole wins a $25 gift certificate to Safeway. Zoomers who would like to play, email or text me, Lance Mendes, before each meeting and we will toss the bean bags for you. You can mail in your check to the club. It is held before the beginning of the meeting from 12 to 12:25. All proceeds benefit the Rotary Club of Walnut Creek. Thanks for participating.

And... the magic number?

Did you figure out the magic number in last week’s issue 41235? The secret is in how you read it. It’s not forty one thousand, two hundred and thirty five; not four one two, three, five. It is read forty one to thirty five. The to, instead of two, is not a mistake, that is the magic! You see this is the final score of the USC/Cal game the week before as proud USC grad, Clint Collier explained at our last meeting. As is his tradition, Clint donated one dollar for every Cal point scored against “his” team… with the expectation, of course, that all of the proud Cal grads would do likewise: donate a buck for every point USC scored against them, thus making Rotary and our club the real winner of this game!
From Rotarian Darren Kelly...

Below is another Facebook post by Viktoria Sybir, dated October 28, 2022, one of the Ukrainian exchange program participants who visited our club in Summer 2016. I have edited for length and obvious translation errors.

“One of the de-occupied villages of the Kherson Region. Before the Russians, one and a half thousand people lived here, now there are only a couple of hundred. Little by little, the locals are starting to return, trying to at least somehow prepare the broken houses for winter. We pull into the central street and watch for some time how neighbors, who have not seen each other for several months, are crying and hugging in line for humanitarian aid.

“Iryna herself approaches us and asks to tell the world a story about her classmate Valentin. He was, she says, the main breadwinner in the village – he arranged such holidays for everyone. He came from a very poor family, but he worked all his life and built a big house, all with his own hands. He didn’t drink at all during his life, he didn’t welcome it in others either, but all the time came up with something interesting – sometimes games for the whole village, sometimes masquerades, then something else. And his wife was incredibly beautiful. Then the occupiers once again got drunk and broke into their house, they wanted to rape her. Valentin tried to protect his wife – both were shot. Neighbors buried them in the garden that the man planted himself, next to the grave where he buried his old mother a week ago.

“Several neighbors, among them a former police guard, were taken somewhere for ten days, beaten so badly that they coughed up blood for a long time after they were returned. Still in rehabilitation.

“Iryna’s house is almost destroyed, so she clears the rubble during the day and returns to Kryvyi Rih in the evening.

“She says that local people crossed the Ingulets River in both directions. From the occupied territory, people at their own peril and risk took the heavy dead by boat, and at night our partisans made their way to the other side in the same way. That’s why, she says, the Russians were afraid of the locals, because unlike the neighboring villages, collaborationism here was only in words - and even then for a short time. Our guys, she says, quickly explained to the fans of the Russian world what it was all about - and, smiling, clenches her fist.

Russians were surprised by the presence of asphalt on roads and carpets in houses. Iryna advised them to work instead of drinking so that they too would have the same problem, then one of the occupiers aimed a machine gun at her and said that she talks too much.”
