ANNOUNCEMENTS

Last Week: Thanks to guest speaker from Chevron USA, Tony Jimenez, who spoke to us about Moving Ideas to Action. Tony specializes in training employees to be creative, and to take new ideas and implement them into useful actions. Start by stirring up the creative juices through visualizing, discovering, combining, and building and modifying. Focus on exploiting opportunities, rather than solving problems. Emphasize activities that move you forward, including creating new things; developing your abilities or those of your staff; adding value to your existing information, services and products; finding new ways to help your customers. Minimize activities that need to be done, but do not move you forward (reporting; meeting). Avoid activities that move you backward (crisis problems, roadblocks).

Recognitions

Thanks to the Club membership for sponsoring a $5,500 donation to the Heather Farms Garden Center for the purpose of purchasing round dining tables for use by the Club and by other community groups.

Thanks to Ursula Behiel for organizing our annual Rotary Day at the Races, June 2nd.

Andy Marshall for graciously letting Adrian Mendes win at ping pong.

Bob Hagler for a recent trip thorough Italy, including Rome, Florence, Venice, and the Passion Play.

Anniversaries

Congratulations to Rotarians and spouses celebrating wedding anniversaries in June, including Fred Scheffler, Milt Smith, Valarie Ridgers.
