ANNOUNCEMENTS

The hard work is done; it's time to party! The auction prizes are in, the decorating, kitchen, bartending, auctioneering, and cleanup committees are ready for last minute preparations, and it's time to get together with Rotarians and friends to enjoy this year's annual fundraiser benefiting the Rotary Club of Walnut Creek Community Foundation, and the DARE program. Bring friends and family to share in the fun! Tickets are still available. $40 ($20 deductible) covers dinner and dancing. Bid early, bid often, and bid high on the fabulous auction items.

Proposed New Members

Dennis Hughes, Corporate Relations YMCA, and John A. ("Andy") Anderson, auto retail. Please provide any comments to the Club Secretary, Milt Smith.

Announcements:

I-House Agricultural Tour. See Dick Mortensen if you will volunteer to host dinner for a few UC Berkeley graduate students following the annual agricultural bus tour sponsored by our Club. Date to be determined (usually in the early fall). Hosts are responsible for picking up their guests at a drop off point in Walnut Creek, providing them dinner, then returning them to the I-House in Berkeley. This is a great way to meet smart, interesting, people from around the world. Share hosting duties by combining with one or more other Rotarians.

Dues are due now for Club Members on a Calendar Year renewal. If you received your renewal notice at the January 9th meeting or in the mail, your dues are due now. Please use the appropriate enclosure forms and envelopes in the dues notice to pay your dues and to make voluntary contributions. See Milt Smith with questions.

Rotary District 5160 Conference—May 3-5 2001 in Woodland. Featured Speakers include Olympic athlete Marilyn King, Financial Planner Guy Wolen, and Astronaut Marcia Ives. Information and registration forms are available from Roger Dolan or online at "www.rotary5160.org"
