Rotary Round-Up!

Awards & Installation Dinner

Saturday, July 16,

Rolling Hills Casino, Corning, CA

As we're closing in on the end of this Rotary year, it's time to celebrate our accomplishments and have a little fun! Plan to join us for the District 5160 Rotary Round-up. Rotarians far and wide across our district will ride gallantly on horseback across rivers and valleys making their way to Corning for the 2022 Awards & Installation dinner on Saturday, July 16th. Prefer an RV as an alternate mode of transportation? You're in luck! The hotel not only has special rates for rooms, but they have a super deal on RV spots. Space is limited - call the hotel for details. What will be happening Saturday night?

- Club and Member Awards for the 2021-2022
- Year Installation of YOUR 22/23 Presidents
- A LOT of fun, belly laughs, and great friends

Arrive early in the day and you can ride along on the pre-party tour/tasting at the Brewery/Distiller

($12/person). Keep the party going with a no-host cocktail and social hour at 5:00 pm. ($10 corkage fee if you bring your own wine) Dinner starts and 6:00 pm. Time to connect, laugh, and enjoy delicious food. 7:00 pm. Awards ceremony and installation celebration. Ate too much? Work it off with After-Party Square Dancing with Paradise Rotarian Donn Thompson - a professional square dance caller.

When you've swung your partner 'til you can't do-si-do anymore, lay your head to rest in one of the Casino's comfy hotel rooms.

ranging the volunteers for this event and worked very hard to organize our support for the Walnut Creek Art and Wine Festival held in Heather Farm Park this past weekend. The Diablo View Rotaract group from DVC volunteered to help. Ivan Hernandez, the boy on the right is the president of the Diablo View Rotaract group and is really distinguishing himself through his volunteer service. He showed up, totally on his own, at 7:00 AM Friday to help set up for four hours before the opening of the event. Our Rotary is getting a lot of good press because he is associated with Rotary and our club.
