The passing of a legend
DG Kathy Suvia
Rotary International lost a hero and a legend yesterday. But our district lost a good friend. I am sad to share with you that our dear Cliff Dochtermann passed away early yesterday [11/23] morning. He lived a long and wonderful life, giving so much to Rotary and the world. Those of you who were privileged to know him, know how he touched us all with his humor and his leadership. Those of you who have only heard stories of him, I want you to know that they are all true – and so much more.
Today’s Meeting is LIVE and ZOOM!

Daren Kelly
Several members of our club (myself, Prem Abraham, Trudy Triner, and John McClintic) participated by remote in a meeting of our new sister club, RC Madras on Tuesday Nov 16th at 5:30am (Pacific Time).

During the spirited meeting, the Rotary Club of Madras welcomed District 3232 Governor J. Sridhar, honored past club presidents, and commemorated the founding of their club by John Davidson Wheeler in 1929. Wheeler’s grandson participated by video conference from Calgary.

Our club looks forward to working with our new friends in Madras!
