Foot ball Finale Sunday February 13th
Lottery Board Club Fundraiser
How does the lottery board work? Points (0-9) will be assigned by random drawing to each row and column of the board AFTER all squares have been purchased. The intersecting numbers for each square will represent the ones digit score for the team on that horizontal or vertical axis. Teams will be assigned randomly after the Conference Championship games.

- How do Club members participate? Participate by purchasing one or more squares.
- Buy your squares at the weekly meetings, or contact John McClintic jmcclintic@bamlaw.com 925-256-8200.
- Cost: $20 per square (100 squares available)
- Prizes:
  - The holder of the square with the correct ones digit score at the end of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd quarters receives $200.
  - The holder of the square with the correct ones digit score at the end of the game receives $400.
✓ The Club retains the rest, and any winnings for un purchased squares.
✓ Cash or check payable to Rotary Club of Walnut Creek.

✓ Rotarians who might be involved in preparing a Grant Application or have responsibility for managing a grant. (Note: If your Club wants to apply for a 2022-23 District Grant, attendance by one member of your club is MANDATORY.)
✓ Rotarians interested in learning about service projects that other clubs are undertaking - ones that can be easily replicated in your club!
✓ Rotarians interested in volunteering or partnering with an international service project that is already in the planning stages.

Track 1 focuses on Grant Management. Track 2 on club member engagement, community impact and expanding our reach through the foundation and service.

Volunteer Opportunity

We have been asked to help with White Pony Express’ Food Rescue program that distributes food to local food banks. The date is January 26th from 1:00 to 3:00. We are hoping to find 6-8 volunteers. This is a great way to start the year off by helping eliminate food insecurity for our Contra Costa neighbors. Please call Trudy Triner for more information or to volunteer! 925.899.0809
