Don Willoughby recently achieved his second Paul Harris Award which was presented to him at our first meeting of '23 by Foundation Secretary and President Elect Gordon Fischer!

At the same meeting...

President Gary Stein, caught up on old business so to speak by presenting last year's new members with and Object of Rotary Plaque, a definite upgrade from the printed plaques we have presented to new members over the years.

We will need volunteers...

to help construct 2 pergolas for the City of Walnut Creek. We will be funding the project and they will acquire and supply the material needed.

Don Willoughby will be our construction project manager and we need volunteers to do the staining, drilling, and assembly of the wooden structure. The city engineers will do the floor and the footings. We expect that this will happen in the early spring. Stay tuned but let Don know if you are interested in helping.

January is Vocational Service Month

Anyone who wants to talk about their work or profession should contact President Gary to make a 5 minute presentation to the club.
